Common Questions About Booking a Man and Van Online

How do I book a man and van service online?

You can book online by selecting your moving date, van size, number of helpers, and providing address and contact details. Then, confirm your quote and pay.

The process is quick and takes just a few minutes. You’ll receive a confirmation by email shortly after payment.

What information do I need to provide when booking online?

You’ll need to provide your moving date, addresses, van size, number of movers, time slot, and your contact details.

Make sure to include floor levels, lift availability, and any special instructions for a smooth experience.

Can I get a quote before booking the service?

Yes, we offer instant online moving quotes based on your selected options—no obligation to book.

This helps you compare costs and plan your move confidently.

Do I need to create an account to book?

No, you can book as a guest. However, creating an account lets you access booking history, manage reschedules, and save addresses.

How far in advance should I book a man and van?

We recommend booking at least 2–3 days in advance. For weekends or end-of-month moves, a week's notice is ideal.

Last-minute bookings are accepted, subject to availability.

Can I reschedule or cancel my booking online?

Yes. Use the link in your confirmation email or log into your account to make changes.

Changes are free up to 48 hours before the move. Cancellation policies apply afterward.

What happens after I complete my online booking?

You'll receive a confirmation email with full details, including your allocated time slot and contact information for the moving team.

We also provide updates and a reminder before your scheduled move.
